

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Thursday, September 30

1999

Propulsion test article, Fastrac test successful

The Marshall-designed propulsion test article and Fastrac engine were successfully hot fired for nine seconds at Stennis Space Center, Miss., on Wednesday. This is the first main-stage test of the Fastrac engine on the propulsion test article.

Buy Safety Day meal tickets from admin. officers by
Oct. 8

Breast Cancer
Awareness 'Lunch
and Learn' Oct. 7,
11 a.m.-noon, Bldg.
4200, room P110

Combined Federal Campaign Speaker Series continues

As part of the Combined Federal Campaign Speaker Series, speakers on Thursday will be Kyle Davis, CASA, 9 a.m., Bldg. 4200, room 600; Barry Porter, American Red Cross, 9 a.m., Bldg. 4201, room 118; and Laura Richardson, American Cancer Society, 1 p.m., Bldg. 4200, room 915. Friday's speakers include Camille Solley, Habitat for Humanity, Madison County, 9 a.m., Bldg. 4200, room 329; Marie Dunbar, Friends of the Family, 1 p.m., Bldg. 4200, room 915; and Lori Reed, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 2 p.m., Bldg. 4200, room P110.

Chemical inventory training Tues. at Morris Auditorium

Chemical inventory training is being held Tuesday from 9-11 a.m. in Morris Auditorium for civil service and contractor personnel involved in its preparation.

See 'Inside
Marshall' for tours
to CFC recipient
agencies